The Greatest Question That Has Ever Been Presented to the American People

Special Guest and Speaker

Stephen Kinzer

Senior Fellow, Watson Institute for International Studies, Brown University

MEETING DATE: Friday, March 17, 2017

TIME: 11:30 AM: Cash bar -- 12:00 Noon: Luncheon

PLACE: The Cape Codder Resort

DIRECTIONS: Corner of Bearse's Way and Route 132

Should Americans try to shape the world, or concentrate on building a better society at home? This has been the central question of our foreign policy for more than a century and is the subject of Stephen Kinzer's new book, The True Flag. It's a debate that first exploded when Theodore Roosevelt led the interventionist charge, only to have Mark Twain call him "insane" for turning the Stars and Stripes into "a bandit flag." And it's one that clearly still rages today.

Stephen Kinzer is an award-winning foreign correspondent (and Truro native) who spent more than 20 years at The New York Times and is currently an op-ed columnist for The Boston Globe. He has also taught journalism and international relations at Northwestern University and Boston University, and his numerous books have led the Washington Post to place him "among the best in popular foreign policy storytelling."
